VOTE FOR BRIGHTER FUTURE WITH ME!!

Introduction

Greetings, fellow students of Addis Ababa University's College of Law and Governance!

I am thrilled to introduce myself as a candidate for the student council in our esteemed institution. My name is Tedros Negash, and I am passionate about fostering positive change, advocating for student rights, and creating an inclusive environment that empowers each and every student within our college. and I am currently a third-year law student. It is with great enthusiasm and determination that I present myself as a candidate to represent our vibrant community. Throughout my academic journey, I have devoted myself to the study of law, cultivating a deep understanding of legal principles and their practical application. As a third-year law student, I have gained valuable insights into the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead of us as future legal professionals.

As a student of law and governance, I firmly believe in the power of effective representation. I understand the challenges and aspirations that we, as students, face on a daily basis. It is my goal to amplify your voices, address your concerns, and ensure that your needs are heard and acted upon. Throughout my academic journey, I have actively engaged in various extracurricular activities, which have honed my leadership skills and deepened my understanding of the issues that affect us as students. I have witnessed firsthand the transformative impact a united student body can have in shaping our college community for the better.

One of the aspects that sets me apart as a candidate is my proficiency in multiple languages. I am fluent in Amharic, English, Wolaytta, Dorze, Gamo, Gofa, Dawro, and Basketo. This linguistic diversity enables me to bridge communication gaps and connect with a broader range of students within our college.

Accomplishments

Over the past three years, I have undertaken various leadership roles, including serving as the class representative, holding the positions of Secretary and Public Affairs Officer in the College of Law and Governance Student Council, and acting as Interim Vice-President of the Addis Ababa University Law Students Association.

In addition, I have been committed to community service initiatives, organizing events aimed at promoting student well-being. My leadership experience extends back to high school, where I served as President of the Children's Parliament and the Student Council.

During my tenure, a group of law students, whom I consider to be my sisters and brothers, were recognized with a trophy for our exceptional contributions to the opening and closing ceremonies at the Addis Ababa University Sport Festival.

Furthermore, I have actively participated in charity work alongside various domestic volunteer groups. I am currently developing a club to bring together students from diverse ethnic and religious backgrounds who share a passion for helping others

My Strategic Plan

As a candidate for the Student Council elections at Addis Ababa University's School of Law and Governance Studies, I am thrilled to present a strategic plan aimed at amplifying student voices and fostering a vibrant campus community. Drawing upon my experiences and vision, this plan outlines initiatives to enhance student engagement, address concerns, and promote academic excellence.

Vision and Mission

My vision is to create a dynamic and inclusive student council that serves as a dedicated advocate for every student, ensuring their voices are heard and valued. Through authentic leadership and a commitment to non-discrimination, my mission is to represent students effectively, address their needs, and collaborate with stakeholders to enhance the student experience.

Goals

1. Amplifying Student Voice and Representation

- Establish regular communication channels, such as town halls and surveys, for continuous student feedback.
- Advocate for diverse representation within the council, ensuring inclusivity for women, persons with disabilities, and all ethnic and cultural groups.
- Actively ensure student interests are reflected in all decision-making processes.

2. Enhancing Student Engagement and Activities

- Foster collaboration with student clubs, other colleges, and external organizations to broaden opportunities and resources.
- Implement initiatives to promote unity and well-being, such as welcome programs for freshmen and half-life programs for third-year students.

3. Addressing Student Concerns and Well-being

- Maintain an open-door policy to address individual student concerns promptly and effectively.
- Collaborate with the administration to create a secure and inclusive campus environment.

4. Promoting Academic Excellence and Support

- Identify areas for academic improvement and advocate for necessary resources, including better online learning tools and support for remote education.
- Facilitate peer tutoring programs and study groups to foster academic collaboration and support.

Specific Initiatives

1. Academic and Extracurricular Programs

- Introduce free afternoon classes during Orthodox and Muslim fasting seasons to accommodate religious observances.
- Organize sports competitions for male and female students, moot court competitions, and public lectures/seminars to enhance student engagement and practical learning.
- Develop mentorship programs to cultivate leadership and teamwork skills through participation in moot courts, legal clinics, and internships.
- Establish an internal moot court competition to prepare students for national and international contests.

2. Facilities and Resources

- Open a copy room and stationery outlet for law school students to ensure easy access to necessary academic materials.
- Advocate for the establishment of a dedicated space for counseling services to support student mental health.

3. Community and Professional Engagement

- Engage in community service and pro bono work to promote social justice and public interest law.
- Build relationships with professors, alumni, and legal professionals to provide students with insights into legal careers and networking opportunities.
- Maintain an active social media presence to promote events, news, and updates about the law school.
- Organize fundraisers or campaigns to raise money for scholarships and other initiatives that benefit the law school community.

Values

- Unity in Diversity: Celebrate and embrace the diverse backgrounds and perspectives within our student body.
- Equality and Equity: Ensure fairness and equal opportunities for all students, regardless of their background.
- Preservation of Rule of Law: Uphold the principles of justice and fairness in all council activities.
- Fairness and Impartiality: Make decisions that are just and unbiased, considering the well-being of all students.

Stakeholders

The primary stakeholders include students from all grade levels, teachers, staff, administration, school clubs, and the wider school community. Their input and collaboration are crucial for the success of our initiatives.

Conclusion

In presenting this strategic plan, I am committed to fostering a student council that truly represents and serves the needs of our diverse student body. With your support and collaboration, we can create a campus community where every voice is valued, and every student thrives. Vote for a candidate who will work with all their ability and has experience in leadership areas to ensure our goals are met. Thank you for considering me as your representative. Together, let's unite our voices for positive change.

I appreciate you taking a look at my student council application. Serving my university and assisting in the attainment of our common goal of a more inclusive and fair future excites me. Do not hesitate to get in touch with me with any comments, suggestions, praise, or criticism.
